

September 2019

Pastor's Message:

Dear Friends in Christ,

Gifted and Grateful! We're going to ponder this theme this fall as we gather for worship, and Christian education, and fellowship, and service.

As people of God, we are gifted in many ways, individually and together. We have gifts of faith, compassion, love, service, generosity, leadership, hope, imagination and much more! We have the gifts of young people, and seniors, and youth, and adults, and long-time members and new members. And we have resources of time, talents, possessions, as well as partners in ministry (like our church camps, colleges, neighboring congregations, seminaries.).

We'll keep noting and asking this fall: How are we gifted? so that we can also consider How are we grateful? And how can we, individually and together, live lives of thanksgiving and gratitude?

As Pete Kutzora notes in the article below, we really do want to include everyone in a wonderful study entitled: Gifted and Grateful. You may not know right now how you'll fit that in to your schedule, or what to expect. I'm pretty sure we'll find this brief study to be something for which we are quite grateful! It will bring us closer to God, the Giver of every good gift! And it will draw us closer to each other, as we share our gifts and our gratitude.

Quoting St. Paul echoing, "I am thankful/grateful for your partnership in the Gospel from the first day until now!" (Philippians 1:5)

Pastor Paul

St. John's Goes on Retreat in Fall 2019

Over the summer, St. John's Council and Ministry Planning Team, identified "Gifted and Grateful" as the worship and ministry theme for the two-month period between Labor Day and Thanksgiving. This congregation-wide theme directly supports our ministry focus this year of being "We are a Church of Stewards". A "Gifted and Grateful" resource will be made available to everyone on September 15 (along with other details) and will be our guide as we take St. John's on retreat to reflect on what it means to be good stewards. Pastor Paul will lead us during worship services through the four themes – Attitudes of Scarcity vs Abundance;

Lunch Bunch

Gifts of the Creator; Gifts of the Redeemer; and Gifts of the Spirit. Existing small groups, teams, and committees will be asked to have conversations using the “Gifted and Grateful” resource. We will also have opportunities for ad-hoc groups to meet and have these “gift” conversations. The hope is that as we take a closer look at God’s vision for our lives – Gifted and Grateful – we can develop a better sense of purpose, joy, and gratitude in our lives.

Veterans Group

The St. John’s Veterans Group’s next meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 10th at 9:00am here at Church. Our meetings are open to both St. John’s Veteran members and non-members so bring a friend. Bring along any old Military items that you might want to share the story about with the group. This year’s theme is “Gathered and Grateful”. The theme is in line with the Gifted and Grateful small groups starting in fall. As we gather on this day we remember that we all have a purpose and are gifted by God in some way. Some of us have the gift of creativeness, the gift of caring, the gift of conversation, the gift of competition, the gift of fun, the gift of cooking, the gift of serving, the gift of their presence, and so much more. We have so many gifts and people to be grateful for, let’s gather this day and celebrate each other!

God's Work, Our Hands

Saturday, September 21 is the day to get involved in this year's God's Work, Our Hands day of service. We have an opportunity to take care of God's creation and our neighbors by visiting and delivering flowers to hospice patients and shut-ins, playing bingo at our local nursing home, build with Habitat for Humanity, or maintain hiking trails in Washington/Ozaukee County. If you can't help this day, always look for ways to do God's work in your everyday life.

Please see the enclosed brochure for more information. Complete the last page and return to the box in the Gathering Space, or in the offering plate. If your entire family is helping put the initials of each person next to the item in which you'd like to participate.

We will also help some of our neighbors in need through donations:

All People's Church - We are collecting food for the "All People's Church" food pantry. Here is a list of items you can start bringing now. Canned vegetables, tuna, chunky soup, canned ravioli, hamburger/tuna helper, oatmeal, cereal, pancake mix, box potatoes, mac & cheese, rice, spaghetti, ramen noodles, cream of mushroom soup, canned fruit. Grab a paper bag with an attached list for easy shopping!

Lutheran World Relief Health Kits: Bath Towels, Sturdy Combs, Nail Clippers, Bar Soap

Elevate Inc. of Washington County (based out of Jackson)

Is in need of personal daily care items, in brand new condition, such as toothbrushes, tooth paste, shampoo, conditioner, deodorant, soap, combs, brushes.

See the bins and bags near the food pantry shelf. We'll deliver all these items in September. Anything you can donate will help!

We're Looking for Ringers & Singers!

Our Choir and our Bell Choir are in need of volunteers to sing and ring God's praises!

The adult Choir meets on Wednesday nights at 7:00 pm starting on September 11 and our Bell Choir practices on Thursdays at 7:00 pm starting on September 12

No experience necessary – come and give it a try!

Family Promise Help – St. John's to Host in November!

Family Promise helps homeless and low-income families in Washington County achieve sustainable independence. They provide food, shelter, and support services for homeless families through the hands-on work of many volunteers. Area churches take turns hosting families throughout the year, providing meals, and a place to sleep.

St. John's is hosting Family Promise families the week of Sunday, November 17 through Saturday, November 23. We will be providing meals, hosting meals, and staying overnight with families. We also need a set-up and take-down crew on Sunday morning as well. This is a very simple way to share your gifts and to help a family that is homeless! Please sign up to help in the gathering space. Talk to Wendy Wolf if you have questions.
